Tie-Breaking Procedures:

Utilize the lowest four players' scores per hole for a team total.

SPECIAL NOTE

We have corresponded with our host site as well as the Philadelphia Section of the PGA, which assists with rules, and both do not believe the local rule for pace of play would be a good choice for postseason play. The local rule is intended for local matches and pace of play. It is not intended for elite or higher level amateur competition. If courses wish to utilize the rule for Regular Season play, that is the determination of the course. However, we will not be utilizing it for District play, Regional play or State play.
