New M&T cards have been issued

Online reporting went well

Invoices for entry fees to be mailed in the next couple of weeks

The use of Arbiter was a success—should we extend to athletic trainers and athletic directors?

Chuck is coordinating with Arbiter to add all officials.

C. Sports Chair Reports

Fall:

Football-Ziegler

Soccer-Isopi

Field Hockey-Bitting

Tennis-Bohannon

Golf-Fritzius

G. Volleyball-Trimmer--

Cross-Country— (need a chair)

Winter: Review of Winter Championships

Wrestling-Goldthorp/Craig--- see attached

look at memo SG will have virtual day Friday so they can start earlier Friday. Expenses in wrestling and hard to make money – look into changing ticket prices for next year. Would like to start 9:00 for sectionals. Steering committee next week – rumors on losing qualifiers. Possible to go to 4 regions and 5 entries for 20 spots. District 3 does not like it.

Basketball-Bitting---Steel High Incident-District 3 is pleased the way it is handled by the Mid-Penn. Follow up to have all coaching certifications verified by the district committee

Shot Clock-discuss with your leagues

Basketball was well attended and the Giant Center was good for the tournament.

Bowling-Bleecker-- things went well – decision moving forward on location and number of entries

Competitive Spirit-Lippy— Things went well, report will be coming soon

Swimming and Diving-Seidenstricker--- RJP Relay Judging Platform issues with disqualifications with quick starts. CV does a great job running the event. Proper investigation of system took place. Good discussion also took place on the use of the RJP.

District 3 was well represented at the state tournament.

Don Seidenstricker has resigned as swimming chair

Spring: Approve all spring championships All memos will be placed on the website

Baseball- Tulley----

Softball-Deibler---- 4A went from 8 to 10 teams. Tournament will now start on Monday instead of Tuesday

Lacrosse-Abbott----

Track and Field-

B. Volleyball----

B. Tennis-Bohannon--

All expenses for spring tournaments will be covered by district 3
